Downtown

- Founded in 1818, Mount Clemens is one of Michigan's oldest cities. In its early days, the City was a destination for the rich and famous who swore by the restorative properties of its renowned mineral baths, which led to the moniker "Bath City".
- Overall, the City is 4.2 square miles with a population of over nearly 17,000. During the day, an estimated 7,000 additional people work in the Downtown area.
- Often called the "entertainment and dining" capital of Macomb County, the City is also home to several important institutions:
 - The Emerald Theater
 - Anton Art Center
 - Oakland University – Anton Frankel Center
 - Macomb County Administrative and Court Buildings
 - SVS Vision Corporate Headquarters
 - McLaren Macomb Hospital
 - GroupGolfer.com Headquarters
 - Gibraltar Trade Center
